Guests: Brittany Lais appealed suspension. Incident report read and Brittney spoke. After discussion suspension stays in place. Brittany is allowed to volunteer and attend events, just not allowed to purchase alcohol.

Sons: Charlie T; we have our annual Sons Christmas ride on 7 December. We have 42 new members and 108 renewals out of 315 members. Our Sons dinner went great, sold 101 meals serving 44 Vets that the Legion paid for.

House: Incident report discussed. Verbal and physical altercation and hit and run in parking lot. If person pays for damages 3-month suspension with 1 year probation. For the non-payment of damages 1 year suspension and 1 year probation. Second person involved 18-month probation.

Scouts: Trees are in and the wreaths arrive 5-6 days after Thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving dinner is on schedule. Dom from Argenzianos volunteered to smoke 3 of the turkeys. The turkey fryers have been inspected cleaned and are ready to go. We have enough volunteers on Thanksgiving Day.

Bingo: See attachment for full report.

Jr. Vice: the 2025 blood drive dates are set and in the calendar.

Finance: Rick mentioned we need to slow down the spending. Employee Christmas bonus discussed.

Historian: The history books this year are to be submitted online. The camera and equipment have arrived.

Unfinished Business:

None

New Business:

December E-Board moved to 17 Dec due to holidays.

Jr. vice would like to purchase 12 poinsettias for decorations form Micha Mountain High School Football team. They are $20.00 each. Total cost $240, All agreed to spend out of commander's budget. Bingo offered to pay for the poinsettias.

Good of the Legion:

Scouts are donating a Christmas tree to the post.

We received a thank you card from the Tyszkiewicz family for our assistance when they had a house fire.

The post is looking to adopt a family for Christmas.

Fry's donated 5 turkeys for our Thanksgiving Dinner.

Meeting adjourned 8:46pm

Respectfully signed,

Roosevelt McKnight
